

How to create public lists on indyreads

2024

These instructions are for creating lists in the web browser version of indyreads:
<https://indyreads.libraries.nsw.gov.au/>

To create indyreads lists, you will need to log in. If you are creating a shared list that multiple staff will be updating, we suggest using a generic email address.

Lists could include Staff Picks, Recommended Reads, feature genres or subjects you'd like to promote and more.

1. Log in to indyreads
2. Select a book you would like to add to a list and open the record by clicking View More.
3. Click on the clipboard and click on New List

Crows Nest
Nikki Mottram

+ New List

Fleeing problems in her own marriage, child protection worker Dana Gibson leaves Sydney for a job in the Queensland town of Toowoomba. Her first house call is to nearby Crows Nest to assess the children of Sandra Kirby, which results in her getting both her new boss and a local detective offside. Dana soon learns that, in the country, city rules do not apply. When Sandra and her best friend are found shot dead, Dana is drawn into an investigation that will force her to strip away the friendly veneer of small-town life, while grappling with ghosts of her own. As buried secrets, bitter tensions and corruption come to light, how far will locals go to stop her uncovering the truth of what happened?

- Parkes Shire Library Staff Picks

Winner of the 2023 Stella Prize

With electrifying boldness, Holland-Batt confronts what it means to be mortal in an astonishing and deeply humane portrait of a father's Parkinson's Disease, and a daughter forged by grief. Opening and closing with startling elegies set in the charged moments before and after a death, and fearlessly probing the body's animal endurance, appetites and metamorphoses, The Jaguar is marked by Holland-Batt's lyric intensity and linguistic mastery, along with a stark new clarity of voice. Here, Holland-Batt is at her most exacting and uncompromising: these ferociously intelligent, insistent poems refuse to look away, and challenge us to view ruthless witness as a form of love. The Jaguar is an indelible collection by a poet at the height of her powers.

6. You can find your list by clicking the Search icon. Under the Format heading you will see List.

7. Click on List to see your list and other public lists.

8. Find your library's list and open it. Here you can see:
- a. the status of the list (Public/Private)
 - b. the number of items, number of followers
 - c. the edit button which allows you to change the name and status
 - d. the chain icon which allows you to copy the direct URL for the list
 - e. remove items from the list and delete the whole list

9. You can use the URL for your promotional activities – ie, embed the link to a list in a newsletter or social media posts.

10. Once a Staff Picks list for your library has been created, let Ross Balharrie know and he will add it to the Staff Picks carousel on indyreads.

11. If you prefer, you can also create lists in the indyreads app, the process is basically the same, just look for the clipboard icon to create your list and add items.
