

How does EBSCO Discovery Service differ from EHIS and OPAC on EBSCOhost?

	EBSCOhost Integrated Search	OPAC on EBSCOhost	EBSCO Discovery Service
Catalogue Representation	Federate searched, thin metadata only	Locally harvested, full metadata*	Locally harvested, full metadata*
EBSCO Databases & eBooks	Federate searched, thin metadata only	Locally harvested, full metadata	Locally harvested, full metadata
3rd Party Resources	Federate searched, thin metadata only	Federate searched, thin metadata only	Locally harvested, full metadata, option to fed search

* = Assumes catalogue is available for local harvesting

How does EBSCO Discovery Service differ from EHIS and OPAC on EBSCOhost?

	EBSCOhost Integrated Search	OPAC on EBSCOhost	EBSCO Discovery Service
Real-time Catalogue Holding Checks	No	Yes	Yes
Full Novelist Integration	No	Yes	Yes
EDS Base Index (metadata from over 6m books, etc)	Not Searched	Not Searched	Searched*

- = The EDS Base Index represents content from approximately 20,000 providers (and growing) in addition to metadata from another 70,000 book publishers. See <http://www.ebscohost.com/discovery/eds-content>